

The Perils of Annexation

Please join us on Thursday, June 25, at 12:30pm EDT for a Zoom conversation between Ambassador Dr. Husam Zomlot, Head of the Palestinian Mission to the UK, and Ambassador (ret.) Ilan Baruch, chair of the pro-two-state Policy Working Group, on the dangers posed by unilateral Israeli annexation of West Bank territory.

We are delighted to have as our moderator Ms. Shaqued Morag, the executive director of Shalom Achshav (Peace Now in Israel). The conversation will be followed by a Q&A with the Zoom audience.

Our panel will discuss the implications of unilateral annexation – the anticipated political fallout in each nation and around the region, the expected developments on the ground, the question of international reaction and international law – and, just as importantly, how this dangerous unilateral move can still be prevented.

This webinar is part of our “Conversations with Israel & Palestine” series, and part of our current “Stop Annexation Now” campaign. It is being co-sponsored by Meretz UK and Americans for Peace Now. We hope you can join us.
