Biden, Trump, Israel, Palestine

Besides its monumental implications for the United States itself, the outcome of the 2020 American Presidential election will also have an enormous impact on Israel and Palestine, the people who live there, and the future of the two-state solution.

Three expert panelists, all of whom are also American citizens living in Israel and Palestine discussed what a Biden presidency would mean for the region. The conversation was followed by a Q&A with the Zoom audience.
